

LECTURES 1999-2002

FACETS OF JEWISH EXPERIENCE THROUGH THE AGES
Lecture Series at CEU, 1999-2000

Peshev, The Man Who Made a Whole Nation Feel Ashamed
Gabriele Nissim
Writer and Historian, Italy

Afterlife: Jewish Culture without Jews
Ruth Ellen Gruber
Writer, USA

Screening: Among Blind Fools
Lecture: Rabbi Weissmandl and the Working Group of Bratislava:
Oral History against Ideology
Martin Smok
Film Director, Czech Republic

The Culture of the Jewish Shtetl on the Territory of Ukraine:
History and Artistic Heritage
Dr Irina Serheyeva
Oriental Department of the V. Vernadsky National Library of Ukraine

Screening of the Film The Last Days
Produced by Steven Spielberg
Followed by a Discussion Led by Ivan Sanders

The Jews in Yugoslavia 1918-1941:
Antisemitism and Struggle for Equality
Ivo Goldstein
University of Zagreb

The Pogrom that Never Happened
Professor Andrei Pippidi
University of Bucharest

Split in Two or Doubled?
Chapters from the History of Russian-Jewish Literature (1860-1940)
Professor Zsuzsa Hetényi
ELTE, Budapest

Isaiah Berlin's Enlightenment and Counter-Enlightenment
Professor Robert Wokler
University of Exeter (Collegium Budapest)

LECTURES 1999-2002

THE PRESENCE OF THE PAST: JEWISH EXPERIENCE EAST AND WEST
Lecture Series at CEU, 2000-2001

The Screening of Exodus on the Danube,
A Film by Péter Forgács
Followed by a Discussion with the Writer András Forgách

*Primo Levi and the Germans:
Trying to Understand the Ununderstandable*
Professor Alvin H. Rosenfeld
Indiana University

'Daz man nit zol in der shtot gin'
Jewish Communal Organization in Sixteenth-Century Polish Towns
Professor Heidemarie Petersen
Geisteswissenschaftliches Zentrum Geschichte und Kultur
Ostmitteleuropas, Leipzig

The Process of Modernization of Eastern Sephardi Communities
Professor Esther Benbassa
Sorbonne, Paris

'May the Torah Be Your Occupation'
Teaching and Studying in the Medieval Jewish Community
Professor martha keil
St. Pölten
Co-sponsored by the Medieval Studies Department

*Jewish Culture in Weimar Germany and Contemporary America:
A Comparative View*
Professor Michael Brenner
University of Munich

The Pogroms of 1881-1882 and the Myth of the 'New Politics' of Russian Jewry
Professor John Klier
University College London

*Jewish Music and Jewish Thought:
The Expression of Thoughts beyond the Limits of Intellect*
Professor Judit Frigyesi
Bar-Ilan University, Israel

The Anti-Zionist Campaign in Poland in 1968
Professor Dariusz Stola
Institute of Political Studies, Polish Academy of Sciences

LECTURES 1999–2002

JEWISH STUDIES PUBLIC LECTURE SERIES
Central European University, 2001–2002

*Violence and Modern Jewish Experience
From Feudalism to Communism*

Professor Victor Karady
Centre de sociologie de l'éducation et de la culture, Paris

Beyond Folklore and Exoticism: New Realities as a Challenge for European Jewish Studies

Professor Joachim Schloer
Moses Mendelssohn Centre for European Jewish Studies, Potsdam University

Holocaust-Era Looted Assets

Dr Tomas Kraus
Federation of Czech Jewish Communities and
Dr Ágnes Peresztegi
European Office of the Commission for Art Recovery

The Jewish Project of Modernity: Diverse or Unitary?

Professor Shulamit Volkov
Tel Aviv University
Co-Sponsored by the Nationalism Studies Program and the History Department

Antisemitism without Jews and without Antisemites. A Case Study in the Pathology of Antisemitism in Poland, 1999–2000

Professor Alina Cața
Jewish Historical Institute, Warsaw

Two Ways of Being a Jewish Writer: Ferenc Molnár and Arthur Schnitzler

Professor Ivan Sanders
Columbia University and SUNY
Co-Sponsored by the Nationalism Studies Program

Against Oblivion: Jewish Women Writing on the Holocaust

Professor Irmela von der Luehe
University of Göttingen
Co-Sponsored by the Gender Studies Program

Commemoration and Memorialisation of the Holocaust in Poland:

The Problems of the Auschwitz Museum

Professor Jonathan Webber
Oxford University

LECTURES 1999-2002

Can There Be Peace in the Middle East?

Professor Yael (Yuli) Tamir

Tel Aviv University

Co-Sponsored by the Nationalism Studies Program

Epilog or Revival? Jewish Life in Germany Today

Professor Michael Brenner

University of Munich

Israel: Holy/Land?

Professor Esther Benbassa and Professor Jean-Christophe Attias

Ecole Pratique des Hautes Etudes, Sorbonne, Paris