

JEWISH STUDIES LECTURE SERIES, 2003-2005

Public Lectures, 2003-2004

Is Life Beautiful? Laughter After Auschwitz

Sidra DeKoven Ezrahi

Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel

Screening of the film They Looked Away (executive producer Paul B. Miller)

followed by a roundtable discussion 'Why Did They Look Away? The Controversies of not Bombing Auschwitz' with the participation of Professor Paul B. Miller (McDaniel College, Westminster, Maryland, USA), Professor Gabriel Gorodetsky (Curiel Center for International Studies, Tel Aviv University, Israel), and Gábor Kádár (University of Debrecen, Hungary)

Jews and Gentiles. Historical Sociology of Their Relations

Zoltan Tarr

Can Kibbutzim Survive in Today's Israel?

Jo-Ann Mort and Gary Brenner

Givat Haviva Institute, Israel

in cooperation with the Humanities Center

Jews as Germans? Nationalism and the Jews in Austria-Hungary

Marsha Rozenblit

University of Maryland, USA

in cooperation with the Nationalism Studies Program

The Orthodox Churches in Dialogue with Judaism

Nicholas de Lange

Cambridge University, UK

The Legacy of Modern East European Jewry: Creativity, Conflict, and Catastrophe

Zvi Gitelman

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, USA

The Middle East after the Iraq War

Shlomo Avineri

Institute for European Studies, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel in cooperation with the Nationalism Studies Program*Scholarship, Politics, and Yiddish Culture:The YIVO Institute in Eastern Europe, 1925-1939*

Cecile E. Kuznitz

Bard College, New York, USA

Public Lectures, 2004-2005*100 Years After Herzl: Zionism as International Nationalism*

Michael Brenner

University of Munich, Germany

American Sports Culture In Comparative Perspective:Yet Another American Exceptionalism

Andrei Markovits

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, USA

European Anti-Americanism: Analysis of a Pedigreed Prejudice

Andrei Markovits

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, USA

Switzerland, National Socialist Past, and the Legacy of History

Jacques Picard

University of Basel, Switzerland

Could Hungarian Jewry Have Survived the Holocaust?New Answers to an Old Question

László Karsai

University of Szeged, Hungary

Antisemitism in Europe. Traditions, Structures, Manifestations

Wolfgang Benz

Zentrum für Antisemitismusforschung, Berlin, Germany

Jewish Literary Renaissance in Post-Communist Hungary

Ivan Sanders

Columbia University, New York, USA

Committees for the Settlement of Russian-Jewish Refugees - Anywhere but Here: European Jewry and the Pogrom

John Klier

University College London, UK

Jewish Regeneration under Siege: The Challenge of German Jewry in the 1930s

Guy Miron

Schechter Institute of Jewish Studies, Jerusalem

Prague 1744 - Lake Success 1947: Diplomacy Without A State - A Jewish contribution to statecraft?

Shlomo Avineri

Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Screening of the film Father of the Refugees followed by a discussion with Martin Smok

Being Jewish on the Screen: Images and Memory in Contemporary Film

Frank Stern

University of Vienna