

APPENDIX 1

JEWISH STUDIES LECTURES SERIES, 2007-2009

Public Lectures, 2007-2008

*Icons Beyond the Border: Why do we Love (Hate) Theodor Adorno,
Hannah Arendt, Walter Benjamin, Franz Rosenzweig, Gershom Scholem and Leo Strauss....?*

Steven E. Aschheim
Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Austria, Habsburg Jewry and the Central European Heritage: Lessons for Today's Europe?

Steven Beller

*Denial or the Liberty of Identification?
Can the Denial of Jewish Identity Form Jewish Literature?*

György Vári
Pannon University, Veszprém

Influence of Reform of Judaism in Poland till the Holocaust

Michal Galas
Jagiellonian University

The "New" Hebrew Poetry and the Hebrew "National Poet"

Dan Miron
Columbia University

*From the Palace in Cairo to the Synagogue in Fustat:
In Search of Lost Egyptian Archives*

Marina Rustow
Emory University

Hide and Seek: Transformations of photo and film in Post-Holocaust Art

Zsófia Bán
Eötvös Loránd University (ELTE)

The Paradoxical and Strange Political Behavior of American Jew

Zvi Gitelman
University of Michigan-Ann Arbor

Boundaries of Democracy

Tomy Lapid

Former Minister of Justice and Head of the Israeli Liberal Party "Shinui"

Theodor Herzl: An Austro-Hungarian Story

Shlomo Avineri

Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Public Lectures, 2008-2009

Jewish (Over)Tones in Viennese and Budapest Operetta

Ivan Sanders

Columbia University

Forgotten Transports: To Estonia (Zapomenuté transporty: Do Estonska)

Film screening followed by a discussion with director Lukáš Přebyl

"Still better to stay than to leave"

Ambiguities of Jewish Life in Nazi Germany 1933-1938

John Grenville

Leo Baeck Institute, London

Translation- Conversion- Projection

The Birth of Zionist Bi-Nationalism in Central Europe

Yfaat Weiss

Hebrew University of Jerusalem

From Toledo to Buda - A Sephardi Refugee who Became a Treasurer of Hungary

Yom Tov Assis

Hebrew University of Jerusalem

The Holocaust in Bessarabian and Transnistria:

Bringing the Local Population into the Story

Diana Dumitru

State Pedagogical University of Moldova